Sales and use tax laws are numerous and confusing ... is your business at risk?

Mistakes made when collecting, paying or reporting tax can result in your business incurring serious liabilities - for taxes, interest and penalties. This seminar provides the perfect opportunity to get the most current information on advanced aspects of complicated sales and use tax in Louisiana. Learn from leading tax experts how to comply with collection, reporting and remitting requirements. Walk away with a real-world road map for meeting all your obligations and keeping your company in safe harbors.

Benefits for You

- Understand the interaction of the Louisiana tax system and the uniform local sales and use tax code
- Tackle emerging technology issues such as computer software
- Handle audits with ease - expert strategies that work for nonexperts
- Maximize your success in dealing with various industry issues
- Appeal an assessment administratively and judicially
